Ohio Bioworkforce Training Partnership | Columbus |

www.bioohio.com

BioOhio and its partners have been awarded $5,000,000 by the U.S. Department of Labor to implement a jobs training program to help meet the needs of Ohio's growing bioscience industry. Training for qualified participants will lead to industry-recognized certifications and associate degrees--qualifications that make them ready for entry level positions in pharmaceutical and medical device R&D and bio-manufacturing organizations. BioOhio will lead and coordinate the three-year program designed to help Ohio's displaced or underemployed workers from declining industries (especially automotive manufacturing and related industries) find new career opportunities. The program will train 660 displaced or underemployed workers. In addition 40 incumbent workers will receive more advanced training to move into higher level jobs.

For more information regarding qualifications and participation, contact Mary Benedict at 614.675.3686 or mbenedict@bioohio.com.
